Dear FHPB

Yesterday was, in our minds, a success. We were whole. We engaged with another community. We serviced our broader community. We made an impact.

Here is the note Rebekka sent to Pam yesterday afternoon:

Thank you for the opportunity to spend a day with you and the amazing team at FH Perry. I have already received many compliments from mentors about how well employees interacted with Achievers and how they were so open, caring and just great to be around.

To us, this is a beginning. There is a relationship to be built and a community to impact-- our own for starters. Friends of the Children is a smart organization. Rebekka and Imari and Emily seem to so well understand the soul and spirit of how we are approaching this and will weave us in by building a very open and trusting relationship.

Friends of the Children-Boston is a revolutionary mentoring organization committed to supporting, developing, and fostering high academic achievement and strong character development of children from at-risk and underserved communities to avoid cycles of poverty, abuse or violence and become successful members of society.

Friends-Boston pairs children who are facing and reacting to risk conditions (Achievers) with a professional Mentor for twelve years, beginning in first grade and continuing through high school graduation. Our ultimate goal is that every Achiever will graduate from high school and continue on to college.
